13 Vegetarian/Vegan Picnic Recipes

So it's officially summer though, to be honest, I wouldn't know it. I'm knee-deep in teaching summer school health. It's actually not as bad as it sounds. While I'd REALLY LOVE some time off, I rarely get to be in the classroom teaching students subject matter that I'm so passionate about. I mean, what's not to love about spending 2 hours a day, 5 days a week talking to high schoolers about topics such as consent education, mood disorders, and sex education!? Fun, right!?

In the midst of all of this, my husband has been out-of-town for a week and a half (half a week to go!) and while I'm really loving having all this time with our girls, mama is in need for a little 'me' time. As it is, I've been getting up at around 5am just so I can enjoy a hot cup of coffee and a fresh episode of The Great British Baking Show before the girls get up and it's 'go' time. I don't know about you, but as a parent, I struggled with anxiety when it came to the weeks leading up to being alone with the kids for an extended amount of time. When Eden was just 4 weeks old, husband had to go to Miami for a few days in order to complete some research for his PhD and if anyone is a proponent of exposure therapy for anxiety, it is me as that time alone with an infant and a 3 year-old truly taught me that I can do it. Now that the girls are older and Eden is at one nap a day, I'm able to actually enjoy my alone time with the girls. We can get out, explore this great city with my little buddies and, dare I say it, have fun. Our absolute favorite activity is to head to the beach with sand toys and picnic in hand. I've been trying to up our picnic game as lately it's been day-after-day of pb & j sandwiches and cucumbers. Therefore, I put a call out to some food blogging buddies and the result is the recipe round-up below, which is chock full of vegetarian and vegan options for your summer picnics! I hope you enjoy and don't forget your sunscreen!
